

ROTARY VISIT TO THE EASTBOURNE BEER FESTIVAL

On Friday October 5th, thirteen Rotarians and friends attended the Annual Eastbourne Beer Festival. With 150 real ales to try, it was difficult to know where to start. Everybody had their favourites by the end of the session.

I particularly enjoyed the Skull Splitter from the Orkney Brewery, and the Croak and Stagger. Others in the party preferred the Legless Rambler, Wobbly Bob or even Pressed Rat and Warthog. Catrina Dodds, the sole female member of the Party, proved herself to be a true real ale enthusiast.

With tokens all spent we tramped off to the Ashoka Restaurant for an excellent curry washed down with a couple of glasses of Cobra.

It was decided to make this a fixture in the Rotary Social Event calendar. Next year's event is on Friday Oct 11th.
